Discover Pendle

Explore the past, present and future in stunning Pendle

Where to stay... What to see... What to do
To find your perfect day out, come and explore Pendle.

Bursting with history, oozing with energy and packed full to the brim with excitement, there is something for everyone….

Peaceful surroundings for you to explore including Pendle Hill and the Forest of Bowland.

Eerie stories to hear about the Pendle Witches as you go on your journey through the quiet, pretty villages which tell a story of intrigue and witchcraft.

Neighbourly people who will make you feel like home away from home in our picturesque accommodation.

Delicious eateries for everyone to enjoy – whether it’s a traditional pub lunch or something a little spicier.

Long walks, long cycle trails and an even longer canal, Pendle certainly knows how to get your blood flowing.

Even after all this, there is still time for you to sit back, relax and enjoy what Pendle has to offer… a pint of Pendle’s very own Witches Brew.
Pendle is a stunning area, which is surrounded by yet more beautiful places including The Yorkshire Dales and Haworth.

If you do fancy a change of scenery, you don’t have to travel far as they are both on our doorstep along with the Lake District, but as nice as these areas are, they don’t quite compare to Pendle so don’t stay away for too long - or you never know what you might be missing out on!

Immerse yourself in our fresh air, walk our paths and rugged crags, discover new trails. Get on your bike, bring your family and take the challenge!

Whether you are a keen walker, an energetic cyclist or just someone who likes to take a steady stroll, surround yourself with our beauty...the beauty of Pendle.

For the keen walker...

Pendle Way
The 45 mile Pendle Way makes an absorbing circuit of the heart of Pennine Lancashire. The high point of the walk is the climb up the mysterious Pendle Hill which dominates the landscape.

West Craven Way
A 24 mile circular walk in two parts, ideal for a walking weekend or short break. The walk goes through some of Lancashire’s and North Yorkshire’s finest countryside. Conveniently this walk starts and finishes at a pub!

NEW - Pendle’s 8 circular walks
Six walks averaging 6 miles each. Themed to reveal Pendle’s rich landscape and history. Experience the wild heathered Kelbrook Moor, the ancient hunting grounds of Pendle, and historic towns and villages like Fence, where the “inventor of time” (Greenwich Mean Time), Sir Jonas Moore, was born. This year there’s even more walking to be had with the addition of two brand new circular walks to this collection, so get your walking boots on!

Pendle’s Three Peaks
Pendle’s Three Peaks offers three walks in an unspoilt corner of Lancashire. The walks include Pendle, Boulsworth and Weets Hills. Pendle is the highest of the Three Peaks. The walks vary in length from five to eight miles. Each walk begins and ends where there is plenty of car parking and refreshments.
For the energetic cyclist...

Grand Tour and Family Cycle Rides
A demanding but scenic ride round Pendle. The Grand Tour will take you over rugged Pennine moorland and past Pendle Hill. There are some steep climbs and the route is high and exposed in places, but the rewards are stunning views and great places to stop on the way. We also have a number of family cycle routes.

For the strollers...

Pendle Witches Trail
A seven and a half mile walk in two parts. Uncover the haunts of the 17th Century Pendle Witches. The trail has lovely views above Bull Hole and Saddlers Farms, places of alleged bewitchment. Bring the story to life and follow in the footsteps of the legendary Pendle Witches.

Pendle Reservoir Walks
Three short walks spring out from the popular picnic spot in the village of Barley. Marvel at the magnificent wildlife and lovely woodland birds on these partly woodland walks.

Pendle Letterbox Trail
This trail takes in the unusual rock formations and moorland on Boulsworth Hill, and is possibly the only one in the North West! Letterboxes are hidden containers. Using a combination of map reading, orienteering and treasure hunting, this is definitely one for the kids to join in.

Beating the Bounds
Two scenic walks, one nine mile circular walk through lovely scenery starting from Victory Park in Barnoldswick and the other around Fouildge. Traditionally the old parish boundary was “marked” by beating it with willow wands.

Horses and Hen Harriers
There are a number of bridleways in the area, including the Pennine Bridleway. For nature lovers, the Forest of Bowland area has the Hen Harrier, one of the rarest birds in Britain and we have a number of beautiful nature reserves in the area.

Guides for these walks and cycle routes are available from Pendle’s Tourist Information Centres, or by calling (01282) 661981 or emailing tourism@pendle.gov.uk (many are free, but some are chargeable).

The walks and cycle rides marked with are available online at www.visitpendle.com
Visit some of Pendle’s exciting attractions including the ACE Centre in Nelson, an entertainment centre that offers visitors something that little bit different. Go down memory lane at one of their traditional tea dances, laugh your socks off at one of our comedy nights or enjoy an evening at the theatre or cinema.

Sit back, relax and be pampered at Nelson’s Inside Spa. Treat yourself to a Rasul mud bath, a monsoon shower or even just a massage – either way, you will definitely leave feeling refreshed. As you are dreaming away, let the kids have fun riding the waves and braving the water slides at Wavelengths.

In the lea of Pendle Hill, visit award winning villages like Roughlee, Barley and Newchurch.

Art Lovers
Pendle itself is picture perfect and it is no wonder Pendle has inspired photographers and artists. Some of their work can be found at Higherford Mill and the Keith Melling Gallery. Pendle brings together nature and art and this is reflected throughout the area. In Wycoller, there are a number of unique whicker figures so get your camera ready and start snapping away.

Something a little different is The Atom, part of the Panpticons Trail. If you want a spectacular view of Pendle’s glorious scenery, climb into this striking object….not only will the views entrance you, but so will the large shiny ball in its centre.

Take a step back in time
If you prefer to take a step back in time, Earby Lead Mining Museum will give you a real taste of the past. With its collection of rare artefacts, it will most certainly fill your day with interesting knowledge.

There is also Bancroft Mill with its 16 foot flywheel, which to this day is still driven by steam.

A place where you must find time to visit is Pendle Heritage Centre. Family home to famous four minute-miler, Sir Roger Bannister, the museum offers a unique opportunity to see the development of a family home over many centuries.

The kids can enjoy a bit of pond dipping so put on your wellies, grab a net and get dipping to see what you can find in the pond!

Ballgrove
BB8 7HZ • SD 90827 40176

In the Summer pack a picnic, in the Winter wrap up warm, walk the dog in the Spring and enjoy the falling leaves in Autumn. Whatever the season, take a stroll along one of England’s most scenic and longest waterways.

Pendle hosts one of the most scenic waterways in England. Be you a boater, cyclist, angler, walker, naturalist or have an interest in history, our canal is a treasure trove of interest.

At 200 years old, the Leeds & Liverpool Canal is the single longest canal in the country. And because of this, ever year Pendle celebrates this slice of historic waterway by holding an annual canal festival in September.

If you drive to work every day and fancy a different mode of transport, put your feet up and travel by boat. Live the life of Rosie and Jim and head to Foulridge Wharf which is the boarding point for one of the most popular boat trips on the canal, “The Marton Emperor” run by Foulridge Canal Cruises. If you climb aboard, the boat will take you on a journey through one of the most scenic parts of the canal, Barrowford to Barnoldswick.

If you are more of a cyclist and want to feel the wind in your hair, get on your bike and pedal alongside the canal. The Pennine Cycleway runs along the towpath and is great for family cycle rides. If you need to unwind after your

NEW for 2011
Experience the waterways for yourself on a brand new service run by Foulridge Canal Cruises from 30th April to 25th September.

There are public trips from Reedley Marina/Barden Mill on Saturdays and Sundays and Bank Holiday Mondays. 75 minute trip at 12.30, 2.00 and 3.30pm. Private groups and coach operators can also book trips by calling 07890 992 880.
Tranquil cycle ride, pop in to the Anchor Inn at Salterforth and enjoy some homemade food. If that doesn’t tempt you, maybe this will...if you are lucky enough the landlord may show you his stalactites and stalagmites!

If you prefer to take a more hands on approach, have a go at the many activities you can do, on or around our reservoirs. Many reservoirs feed the canal, including one known as Lake Burwain, which is popular with water sports enthusiasts. Hop into a sailing boat and glide smoothly along the lake. Even the kids can get involved and have their own taster at sailing the “seven seas”.

Pendle’s canal is not only appreciated by us, but it has been recognised by the Inland Waterways Association and has been awarded the IWA’s Kenwin Trophy in recognition of the way in which it had greatly improved the canal corridor. We have also recently received a national award for Waterways Renaissance by the British Urban Regeneration Association.

Tackle a Trail
We have a series of four scenic Canal Walks. There are also four urban heritage trails called the Tacklers’ Trails, which link the Leeds & Liverpool canal and cotton making. The people, places and buildings are brought to life on these trails by interpretation panels alongside the canal. The canal walks are available at Pendle’s Tourist Information Centres and The Tackler’s Trails are on our website.

Holiday on the canal with Canal Boat Escapes or Hapton Valley Boats. Details on page 27.

www.visitpendle.com  |  Pendle Visitors Guide 2011  19
On a cold lonely road to Colne on a March day in 1612 a man collapses to the ground paralysed. His name is John Law, a pedlar from Halifax.

Just moments before Demdike’s granddaughter, Alison Device, had cursed him. He would not give her the pins that her grandmother wanted for a spell.

Abraham Law, the pedlar’s son, hauled Alison in front of local magistrate, Roger Nowell. Alison, overawed by the situation confesses and incriminates both her grandmother, Demdike, and her local rival, Chattox.

The two are interrogated at Ashlar House, and perhaps wishing to enhance their local reputation try to outdo each other with their stories, including the story of meeting the devil in a local quarry.

On April 3rd 1612 Demdike, Chattox, and Redfearn are committed for trial for witchcraft at Lancaster Castle. All are rounded up and imprisoned in Lancaster Castle.

The Pendle Witches lived in the early 1600’s at a time of religious persecution and superstition. The protestant king, James I, had just survived the catholic gunpowder plot. The king brought in the death penalty for those found guilty of witchcraft.

It was a dangerous time for two Pendle families, led by two wily old matriarchs, Demdike and Chattox. Long since widowed, their existence depended on exaggerating the cures they offered to local villagers. It would prove to be their undoing. They and many others were hanged at Lancaster on August 20th 1612.

You too can go back in time and follow in the footsteps of the Pendle witches as there are a number of witches trails that you can walk, cycle or drive.

Feel history come alive as you touch and feel the sights and sounds of the past so closely. The village of Barley and Pendle Heritage Centre in Barrowford are the start and end points of these fascinating trails.

To request copies of these trails please contact one of Pendle’s Visitor Information Centres (Page 25).

Imagine this…
Take a well deserved break at one of Pendle’s rural eateries. Here you can relax and tuck into some wholesome, home made food, which will definitely restore your energy for the next part of your walk.

From then on, you will stumble across many quaint and inviting pubs including Ye Old Sparrowhawk Inn. Here you can sample locally produced food whilst sipping on some of it’s award winning cask ales.

If you have a sweet tooth and you have caught Pendle on a warm, sunny day, visit Slaters Ice Cream. Slaters is a family owned business with its own traditional recipe, which still to this day has remained a secret with flavours ranging from traditional Vanilla to Tutti Fruity, it is sure to be a hit especially with the kids.

As we can’t always catch the sunny weather, an alternative is to visit the sweet smelling factory where Farmhouse Biscuits are produced. The fresh, baking smell will most definitely entice you into the Factory Shop.

Who needs to go to Harrods to buy these luxurious traditional biscuits when you can buy them straight from where they have been baked.

Modern Luxury from a Bygone Era

The Oaks Hotel was once the private home of a wealthy local merchant and has been sympathetically restored, preserving the grand feel of a bygone era. The lounge and reception area is dominated by a 25ft high stained glass window, which tells the story of Abraham Altham's life and work in the Burnley area. Both the Quills Restaurant and Authors Bar are in the 'old house', with grand, ornate ceilings and floor to ceiling windows creating instant theatre. The hotel is set in mature grounds, with views of Pendle Hill from the terrace. Located just off the M65 - the Oaks Hotel is a perfect meeting point for those needing to do business in Burnley, Preston, Clitheroe, Blackburn and north Manchester. A wide range of meeting rooms also make it a popular venue for conferences and company training events. The hotel also offers complimentary high speed wireless internet access, making it easy to go online and stay in touch.
